We suggest you allow at least 50-60 minutes for the drive to downtown Stillwater and finding a parking spot. Please consider that there will be Friday night rush hour traffic on Highway 36, and because Stillwater is a popular summer river town with great restaurants, it is a much sought-after tourist destination.

- Take Exit 52B on to Highway 36 east, toward Stillwater, for 9 miles (about 13 minutes)
- As you near the St. Croix River, exit on to Highway 95 north ("Stillwater".) The route will parallel the river and lead to downtown Stillwater - about 1 mile (approximately 3 minutes.) Highway 95 is also labeled as "St. Croix Trail." Do not cross the bridge into Wisconsin.
- When you hit the edge of downtown Stillwater, there will be a parking lot immediately on your right. Alternately, travel to the first stoplight intersection, take a left for one block, and the street ends at the entrance of a free parking lot (often filled to capacity.) There is parking along Highway 95 as you are entering downtown Stillwater which is very close to the boat docks on the river. Street parking is also available . . . if you're lucky!
